

ME2 MULTIPLIER EVENT

08 November 2024 (M24)
UNIVERSITY OF RUSE "Angel Kanchev" / BG / Ruse

Multiplier event title

Sharing Good Practices, project results of the Innovative Educational Model and promote Transformational Changes

Location

Hosted by: P5 - UNIVERSITY OF RUSE "Angel Kanchev" / BG / Ruse

Venue: Studentski grad, ul. "Studentska" 8, 7017 Ruse, Bulgaria, hall 2.203, Building 2

Multiplier event agenda

Lodz University of Technology

Page | 1

event AGENDA
Sharing Good Practices, project results of the Innovative Educational Model and promote Transformational Changes
09.00 – 09.30	Register guests and supply the promotional materials	Sign docs, materials of the event
Section I. - Opening Session, Educational Models
09.30 – 10.00	Welcome speakers from education, business, and civil society, and moderate discussions in line with event sections	Prof. Irina KOSTADINOVA
10.00 – 10.30	- Exchanging valuable practices and outcomes from projects. - The insights acquired from project experiences facilitate greater cross-disciplinary collaboration and enhancement across various fields of expertise.	Prof. Irina KOSTADINOVA/ speaker
10.30 – 11.15	- Advancements in acquiring green knowledge and complex transversal skills for entrepreneurship, creativity, and digital competencies. - Progress in obtaining eco-friendly knowledge and sophisticated cross-disciplinary abilities	Milena BACHVAROVA, deputy director of AEG-Ruse/ speaker
11.15 – 11.30	Coffee break
11.30 – 12.30	- Facilitation of transnational collaboration and the implementation of innovative pedagogical approaches aimed at enhancing environmental stewardship. - Exploration of synergies for networking between the education school and business sectors at a transnational scale to drive cooperative opportunities.	Dr Eng. Anton ANCHEV, teacher at "Panayot Volov" secondary school - Byala
12.30 – 13.30	Launch break
Section II. - Practices, Innovative Educational Model, Transformational Changes
13.30 – 14.30	- Enhancing interdisciplinary and forward-thinking approaches in educational and engineering sectors to develop green skills and promote sustainable growth.	- speaker Desislav I. KOSTADINOV, student, „Elias Canetti”
14.30 – 15.30	- Redefining green business models and strengthening collaboration between education, training, and industry.	- speaker Emma K. DIMITROVA, student, Geo Milev English Language High School
15.30 – 15.45	Coffee break
15.45 – 16.35	- Promoting the European approach to green education, along with environmentally responsible behaviours and lifestyles.	- speakers: Luyben B. MIHOV, student, Geo Milev English Language High School; Zdravko M. ZDRAVKOV, student, PG in river shipbuilding and navigation; Magdalena M. TOMOVA, student, "Friedrich Schiller" German Language High School; Daniel T. STEFANOV, student, PG in mechanical engineering "Yuri Gagarin" - Ruse
16.35 – 16.50	- Informs about the benefits of engaging in the Innovative Educational Model/ IEM with forward-looking curricula centered on green concepts. - The role of education for green jobs & enterprises, and environmental responsibility for sustainable growth	Prof. Irina KOSTADINOVA/ speaker
Section III. Wrap-up session and recommendation
16.50 – 17.00	- The advantages of combining various learning environments, digital experiences, and materials related to sustainability. - A review meeting will be held to discuss the findings and conclusions.	Prof. Irina KOSTADINOVA/ speaker
The End 2nd Multiplier Event – ME2 - Ruse		